READING FORCE BOOK CLUBS

FREE
for all serving and veteran families

We have book clubs for children* and adults – each member will receive three FREE books!

Reading Force Book Clubs are a fantastic way to have fun. You could be a book worm, a first-time book club member or anywhere in between - everyone is welcome. Our book clubs help our members to meet new people in their military community, build a strong sense of connection and reduce feelings of isolation. Reading the same book can also connect people for longer than a telephone call or chat online.

Would you like to become a Reading Force Book Club Coordinator?

We offer training and support – this can be an ideal route back into the workplace or to develop your professional confidence.

Reading Force encourages military families to keep close through shared-reading.

We offer a range of special resources and welcome all involved (serving, reservist, veteran and families, including those separated by bereavement or relationship breakdown.)

* Volunteer coordinators of children's book clubs must have a recent DBS/Disclosure Scotland/AccessNI check.
