

READING
FORCE

Have fun with your family...

Share a book and scrapbook together

Whether your family are all at home,
or separated because of deployment, training,
or distance, doing Reading Force brings your family closer.

How do we take part?

- Get your scrapbook from your school, HIVE, or our website
- Choose a book (your free book or another)
- Read the book together at home, or over video calls, or individually and then chat
- Fill your scrapbook with your family's thoughts about the book – include drawings, photos, anything!
- Send us your scrapbook or pictures of it and receive a certificate and book prize
- All scrapbooks are returned by registered post

Claim your free book

Send us the postcard on your scrapbook or go to our website and we'll send a good read to get you started

For young people aged 11–18, request your journal and FREE book

How do I get a journal?

- Go to our website and request your FREE journal and book
- Choose a book (your free book or another)
- Read the book and use the journal to note down your thoughts
- Use the special emoji stickers
- Share your thoughts about the book with us on the review sheet
- Send us a picture of your review sheet and we'll post it on our Instagram page

"She was made up to receive this book today and has already started reading it. She is also totally in love with the reading journal and loves the anime, as a budding artist she said it looks incredible."
